Section 75 Equality Policy Screening Report

April 2022– March 2023

Equality Screening Report

Tourism NI (TNI) has developed, or revised, a number of Policies, Strategies, Plans and Services in 2022/23.

In complying with TNI's Equality Scheme Duties, these have been screened for any possible adverse impact that they may have under Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act, 1998.

The nine groups are:

- Age
- Marital Status
- Women (including girls) and Men (including boys)
- Persons with a disability and Persons without
- Persons with dependants and Persons without
- Political Opinion
- Racial Group
- Religious Belief
- and Sexual Orientation.

Screening Questions

- What is the likely impact on equality of opportunity for those affected by this policy, for each of the Section 75 equality categories? (minor/major/none)
- Are there opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity for people within the Section 75 equality categories?
- To what extent is the policy likely to impact on good relations between people of a different religious belief, political opinion or racial group? (minor/major/none)
- Are there opportunities to better promote good relations between people of a different religious belief, political opinion or racial group?

Rank & Screening Decision:

Screening has taken place against the questions above and have been ranked 1,2 or 3:

- 1 - 'screened in' for equality impact assessment, including date of EQIA
- 2 - 'screened out' with mitigation
- 3 - 'screened out' without mitigation.
