Meet the Buyer Workshop 2016

Welcome to the 2016 Northern Ireland Tourism Meet the Buyer Workshop in Belfast. Tourism Northern Ireland, along with our strategic partners, Tourism Ireland, are delighted to welcome you to Northern Ireland to experience this beautiful corner of the world.

Northern Ireland is a compact destination with a warm personality and great potential for growth. We are a land of do-morers, go-beyonders and extra-milers.

2016 is Northern Ireland's Year of Food & Drink, giving us a golden opportunity to let you sample our tastiest produce that will sell Northern Ireland as a foodie destination.

Just look around. This is a place made famous by its Titanic-creating ship builders, its giants and golfers, its mythical legends, music-makers, poets and Narnia-dreaming storytellers. Maybe it's the helter-skelter weather, maybe it's magic – but something here inspires ambition and spirit and the proof is on your plate and in your glass. From harvesting Comber Earlies to catching Lough Neagh Eels, distilling Bushmills Whiskey to rearing Glenarm Shorthorn, we go that little bit further for every single mouthful. We craft, grow, breed, catch, cook and enjoy all with passion- to prove that the finest landscapes, in the hands of the most dedicated people, make for truly phenomenal experiences... Northern Ireland. Relish the place.

I hope that over the next few days Northern Ireland will inspire you and that you will find numerous opportunities during the workshop. We look forward to working closely with you to spread the news about what Northern Ireland has to offer the world.
